

ALEC^{the} GREAT

What today is called "news,"
By tomorrow will be
The latest page added
To history.

R.D.

ALEC^{the} GREAT

The fellow who goes snooping—
And it's a fact, I fear—Oft learns some things about himself
He's rather shocked to hear.

R.D.

ALEC^{the}GREAT

Some folks make us nervous-- That's all there is to it--

But only as long
As we let them do it.

R.D.

ALEC^{the}GREAT

A chap who's being visited
By worries in his mind,
Has little time to entertain Another guest, I find.

R.D.

ALEC the GREAT

EDWIN

AN1

1111

When some folks display

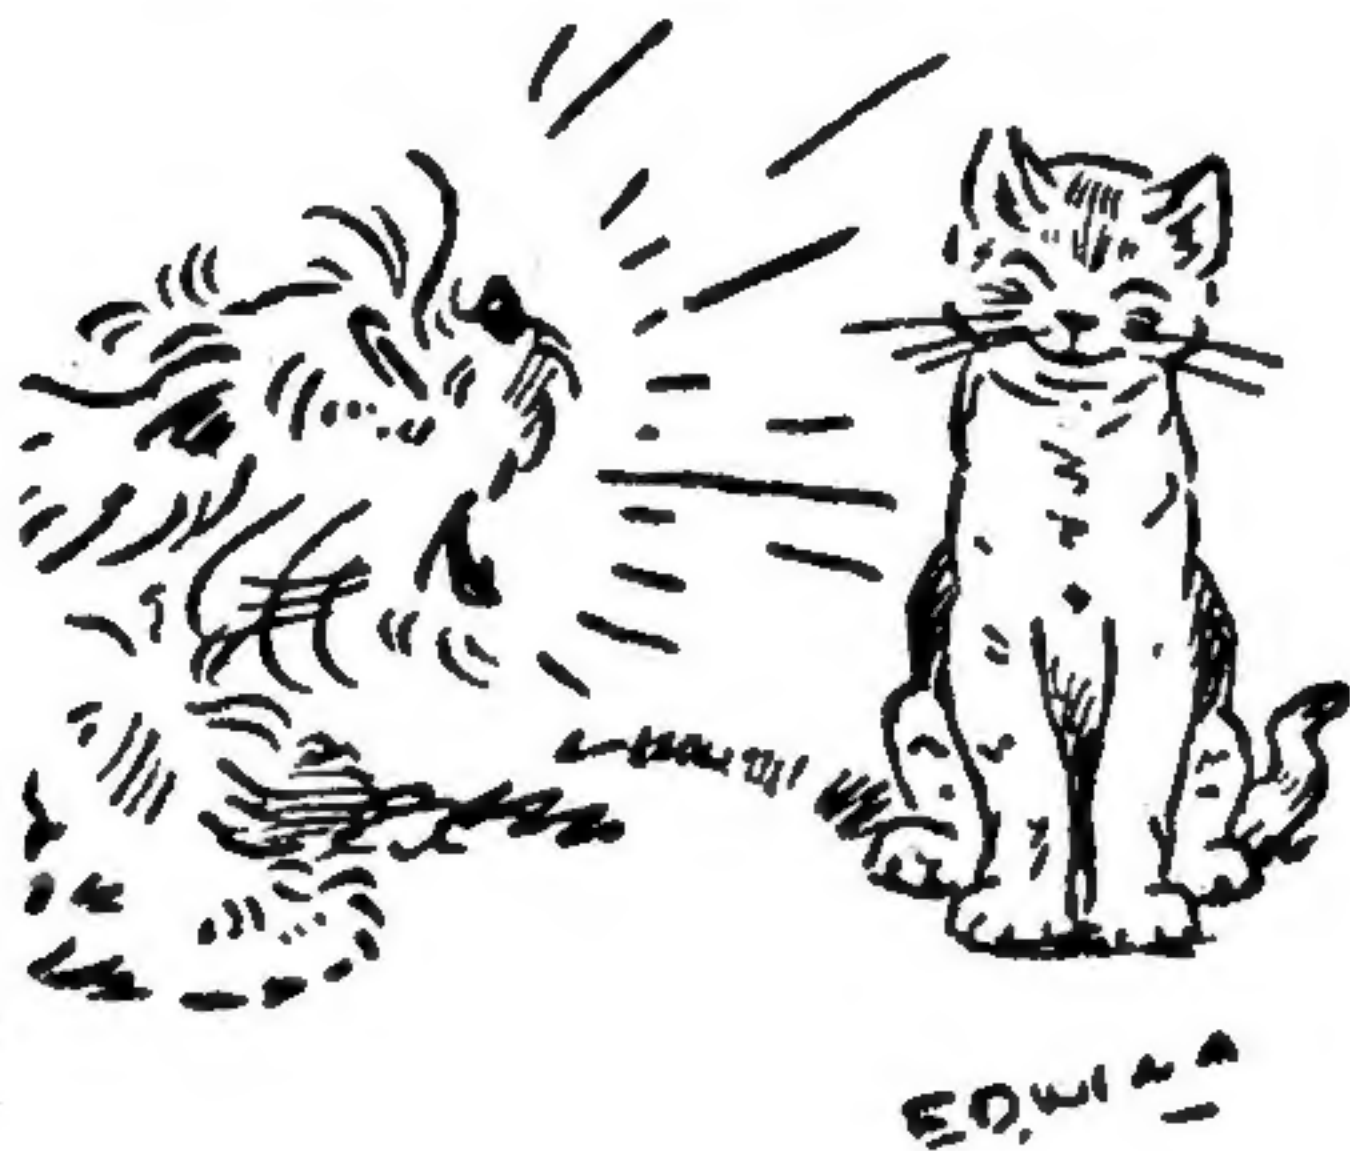

A big smile for you,

They also have something

They want you to do!

R. D.

ALEC THE GREAT

Nothing quite seems
To make tempers spark
As quickly as some Little catty remark.